PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

“We, at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, are a diverse community of the poor, the disadvantaged and hungry, the well-to-do, the youth, elderly, visitors and those seeking refuge.

As a community of many cultures and races, we stand for unity in our diversity by expressing our love of God the Father through prayer and worship, through service to one another, through the ministry of welcoming, through evangelization and ecumenism. With the Bishop, we shall pursue this mission faithfully through the example of Jesus Christ, the power of the Holy Spirit and the gifts and talents of our members.” All are welcome today, especially visitors, guests and those who might be new to the community.

HOW TO TALK TO A FRIEND WHO'S HAD AN ABORTION

Andie's Story

One night my best friend in high school called me, totally in tears. I hadn't seen her since we left for college. She told me she got pregnant her first semester at State and let her boyfriend talk her into an abortion. It was the baby's due date the night she called. The boyfriend broke up with her months ago because she "wasn't fun to be around anymore." What could I say? I had no clue how to deal with this. Growing up we were both pro-life.

I thought I could calm her down by saying stuff like "Don't worry. You did the right thing." "What else could you do? It was the best choice." I told her to try to get over it and think about her future. And I thought she was just being dramatic when she said she didn't have a future anymore. But I found out that, a few days later, she tried to kill herself. I keep wishing I had said something that could have helped her instead of making her feel more alone.
—Andie

Almost everyone knows someone who's had an abortion. Many people know someone personally who is suffering because of an abortion. If a friend confided in you tomorrow that she had an abortion, would you be able to respond in a way that brings her closer to healing?

There are ways to avoid the mistake Andie made. Ways that may help your friend be hopeful again about her future.

If this is the first time your friend has told you about her abortion, she may be afraid that you will be critical or that you will repeat to others what she tells you. She must know that you are a real friend who cares about her, and that you are not sitting in judgment of her.

Before you talk to her, keep in mind: What does she need today? Someone to listen?

- a shoulder to cry on?
- a referral to a professional counselor,
- a priest or minister?
- or even crisis intervention?

Listen with your heart

Begin by listening to your friend. Let her pour out the whole story without interrupting her. You don't have to understand every detail. It's important that she lets go of some of the burden she's been carrying and that she no longer feels alone.

She may talk about: what happened at the clinic

- rage and anger—at the boyfriend, her parents, the clinic personnel, God, herself
- guilt, regret, depression, nightmares
- using alcohol or drugs to try to forget, and even suicidal thoughts
- unbearable grief
- being alienated from her boyfriend, family and friends
- feeling that she doesn't deserve to be loved or forgiven

Assure her of your love and support

Much as you'd like to make all her suffering go away with the right words, her grief and loss won't disappear after one conversation. Assure her of your friendship. Tell her you will be there for her and help her find healing.

Where help can be found

Ask your friend if she has ever heard about help for people struggling after abortion. There are safe places where trained people can help her overcome grief and loss, and give her hope. There are counselors, priests and ministers prepared to help, as well as support groups and retreats. Offer her the name and phone number of the local Project Rachel. Give her this website address: www.hopeafterabortion.com.

Spiritual healing

Even a woman who doesn't go to church or think of herself as religious can be afraid that God will never forgive her for having an abortion. She should know that God loves and forgives those who are sorrowful. He wants to comfort them and give them his peace.

You might want to invite your friend to go to church with you, or ask her to consider talking it over with a priest or minister trained in post-abortion counseling. Some Bible passages and prayers relating to God's love and mercy can be found at the Prayers section of www.hopeafterabortion.com.

Begin the Journey

Encourage her to contact Project Rachel for help. Remind her that God's love and mercy is bigger than any sin.

Assure her again of your friendship. Promise to be there, not only today, but in the future.

Thank her for having the trust to talk with you. It took courage. Her healing journey has begun.

Helping a friend suffering in silence

If you see a friend struggling with sadness and emotional turmoil and you suspect that abortion might be the cause, would you know how to offer help without being obvious about your suspicion? A suggestion: At an appropriate time and place, you might say something like this:

"I found an interesting website that gave me a new outlook on abortion. I never realized the awful pressures women face in making that decision or how, afterward, they suffer, grieve and feel alone. There are programs, like Project Rachel, all over the country that help women struggling with emotional problems after abortion."

Have information on local programs (address and phone number) on hand in case she asks for it. Or leave information where she can find it.

Coat & Sweater Drive

The Christian Service Committee is conducting its 9th annual Coat & Sweater Drive. Please consider donating gently used winter coats and sweaters so that we can pass them on to people in need.

Collection drums will be at the entrance of our temporary worship space the weekends of October 14th/15th & 21st/22nd.

If you have any questions, about either event please contact Ron Rushworth at 304-382-7768.

October is off to a great start at SHGS! Last week, students in grades 1-5 enjoyed celebrating physical fitness at our annual Gym Jam. Classes visited centers where they participated in Zumba, baseball, golf, kickball, soccer, circuit training, juggling, and basketball.

Early October also featured First Grade Apple Day, a celebration of many delicious apple foods! Our three year old preschoolers were in food and learning mode too on Corn Day, a day with many learning stations related to this favorite fall food! Second graders enjoyed a fall field trip to see the play Peter Pan, and our fourth graders are learning the hand chimes in Music class. SHGS students are also discovering many interesting facts about Egypt in Cultural Explorations class, and fourth and fifth graders in our new Strings Program are beginning to make beautiful music on Mondays and Wednesdays. October held a special dress down day for hurricane relief, with SHGS students raising over $900 for the Catholic Charities Hurricane Relief Fund. SHGS students also donated 175 boxes of cereal in September and continue to deposit food items in our Manna Meal donation bin. Our students' devotion to learning, service, and one another truly makes them Beacons of Hope!

The Sacred Heart Women's Scripture Study and Faith Sharing Group will be prayerfully working through "My Soul Magnifies the Lord-A Scriptural Journey with Mary" by Jeanne Kun this winter. The study of this book will begin on Tuesday, November 7. We will meet throughout the month of November but take December off. We will begin again on January 3 and finish on February 7. Our group meets from 5:30pm – 6:30pm on Tuesday evenings in the Cordis Center. Any adult woman in the parish is welcome. We will be ordering books for anyone interested, so please contact Mary DePriest at 304-932-9032 or marydepriest1@gmail.com to register or with any questions. We always order an extra book or two and welcome those who just may want to see if this is something they would like to pursue.

Mark your calendars for the Saints on Film Series to begin on Sunday, October 22, 2017 from 2:00-4:30 p.m. in the Sacred Heart Family Life Center on Quarrier Street. The Saints on Film Series is open to all members of the parish and their guests. There is no pre-registration required nor charge for this program. There will be four films shown this year. Jim Olson will be the film facilitator.

SECOND COLLECTION FOR THE DIOCESE OF ST. THOMAS—US VIRGIN ISLANDS

In response to the critical need of our brothers and sisters in Christ of the Diocese of St. Thomas—U.S. Virgin Islands following hurricanes Irma and Maria, Most Rev. Michael J. Bransfield, bishop of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, has asked for each parish in the diocese to conduct a special collection Oct. 28 and 29 to assist in the relief efforts.

The diocese was hit by two catastrophic hurricanes during September. All of the U.S. Virgin Islands felt the effects of both hurricanes—Hurricane Irma hit St. Thomas, St. John and Water Island while Hurricane Maria hit St. Croix. The area is still suffering from power outages and lack of communication as well as complete destruction in many areas.

Special envelopes have been provided to your parish to make the giving process easier. Checks for the relief fund should be made out to your respective parish with "Second Collection St. Thomas—US Virgin Islands" on the memo line.

"As we continue our prayers for the victims and first responders following these unprecedented events," Bishop Bransfield said, "let us also spend time in prayer and discernment as we prepare for this upcoming collection. The wonderful generosity of the faithful of our diocese is a beautiful testament of our commitment to living out the values of Christ."

Why Advertise in your Parish Bulletin?

1. You get your message out each week in about 500 bulletins x 52 weeks a year.
2. All Ads are in your choice of color.
3. You support your parish and the parish in turn supports your place of business.
4. Your ad can be changed or corrected as needed because all the work is done in-house.
5. All proceeds go to assist needy parish students in our schools.

Can you think of a better reason to advertise?

We encourage parishioners to patronize our sponsors for helping to make this bulletin possible through their generosity.
